BERKELEY BOOST WEBINAR:

Access to Justice and the Sex Abuse Litigation

Friday, March 18th at 10:00 AM PST

What are the best strategies for ensuring access to justice for victims of sexual abuse and assault and preventing future abuse?

This edition of "Conversations on Civil Justice" features a conversation with John C. Manly, the nation's preeminent attorney representing victims of sexual abuse and assault and lead counsel for the Olympic gymnasts and the students in the USC, UCLA and Michigan cases.

This webinar is part of an ongoing series of programs focused on civil justice issues hosted by The Civil Justice Research Initiative (CJRI) — a think tank housed at Berkeley Law. The series is supported by a gift from AAJ's Robert L. Habush Endowment.
